Be inspired to BE the change for a better world!

Innovation and Business Ethics are the dominant components to progress towards a sustainable society. Our key global challenges can become drivers for innovation. Leaders in all kind of organizations play a significant role as their business decisions impact the world we live in and they have the power to make change happen.

The Rotary Club Stuttgart International Impulses are for leaders in role or attitude who want to refresh and widen their own ideas and are eager to increase the impact of their organization for a better world.

Please join us in this effort! We would be happy to welcome you!

Be a part of the 6 impulses for change starting with the following presentations:

Ethics in Practice:

Ethics and Global Research: Valuing Investment in People

Dr. Bernd Villhauer

Managing Director at Global Ethic Institute,
Tübingen

'The economic thinking of today explores new worlds of value investment - investing across cultural borders and investing in human potentials. Both problems are considered and put in an ethical perspective.'

Ethics First: Driving Innovation through Values

Dr. Ernst von Kimakowitz

Managing Director at the Humanistic
Management Center, St. Gallen

'Great organizations are purpose driven and anchored in strong values. They innovate and operate for a positive impact on society at large.'
